

Al Jalila Children's Hospital, GI

Department

Students: Momina Malik, Prisha Bhatia
Supervisor: Dr Christos Tzivinikos

Ward Rounds and Consultations

- Thorough Pediatric History Taking and Pediatric Physical Examination (Including neonates and infants)
- Discussing patient centered treatment plans and management
- Comforting patients and families

- Including gastroscopies, colonoscopies, esophageal dilations, clipping of esophageal varices, peg tube insertions, foreign body removal
- Kasai procedure for management of biliary atresia

Day Procedures and Surgeries

Multidisciplinary Meetings and Clinics

- Discussed interesting radiology findings including atypical position of gallbladder, abnormal DWIs, obstructed bowels, malrotation of stomach
- Histology meetings – cases included eosinophilic esophagitis, parasitic infections and typical IBD histology findings
- Attended aerodigestive clinics witnessing multidisciplinary management of complex or syndromic patients

- Patient's flow from day-care to OR during day case GI endoscopy
- Identified and quantified causes of delay during and between procedures and suggested improvements
- This report will be presented to the quality improvement department in AlJalila Children's Hospital

Quality Improvement Project

